WORK EXPERIENCE

FORBMAX | FULL STACK DEVELOPER
April 2023 - Present

At Forbmax, as a MERN Stack Developer, I develop robust and scalable solutions. Proficient in React, Node.js, Express.js, and MongoDB, I optimize performance and enhance functionality. Tailoring comprehensive solutions to diverse client needs, I contribute to team collaboration and successful project outcomes.

MEVETO | FRONTEND DEVELOPER
September 2020 - March 2023

During my tenure at Meveto, a prominent cyber-security company, I excelled in React, Redux, tailwind CSS, and MUI. I built and enhanced features like the subscription module and documentation portal. I contributed to transitioning from vanilla Redux to Redux Toolkit and RTK Query and migrating from Bootstrap to tailwind CSS. Additionally, I trained team members, actively participated in code reviews, and upheld high-quality standards with meticulous attention to detail.

DEPART | PROJECT
September 2020 - August 2021

For my Bachelor's degree project, I developed Depart, a web and mobile app automating student and faculty transport tasks. With a user-friendly interface, it offered real-time notifications, route scheduling, vehicle management, and travel pass printing. My problem-solving skills and attention to detail ensured a seamless transportation experience for all stakeholders.

EDUCATION

NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF MODERN LANGUAGES (NUML) | SOFTWARE ENGINEERING

I have completed 16 years of formal education. My major was Computer Science and Software Engineering.

INTERESTS

Playing cricket and football with friends is always fun, and I enjoy watching cricket matches whenever possible. My favorite food is finger fish, and I love to travel to natural places when I have the chance. One trip that stands out in my mind was to Murree Hills with some close friends. Hiking through the beautiful forests and taking in the breathtaking mountain views was an unforgettable experience.
